From Tuesday October 11. to Saturday October 15. 1743.

Dublin, October 6.

ON Tuesday the 4th Instant, the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Grace sent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houses, who unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to his Majesty, which were this Day presented to his Grace.

His Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, his Speech to both Houses of Parliament, at Dublin, on Tuesday the Fourth Day of October 1743.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

MY long Experience of your firm Attachment to his Majesty's Person and Government, of your steady Zeal and Unanimity in seconding his Royal Care for the Prosperity of this Kingdom, and of your obliging Regard, on all Occasions, to the Ease of my Administration, greatly heightened the Pleasure with which I received his Majesty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the Accounts and Estimates.

The Part which his Majesty hath so greatly taken for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe, hath occasioned some Alterations in his Armies, but as they are far from increasing the Expence of this Kingdom, I have nothing new in Command from his Majesty to ask; and I assure my self, from your former Conduct, that you will, with the greatest Chearfulness, provide for the National Debt, and continue to support the King's Government with Honour.

The Arms for the Use of the Militia being all provided, the Account of the Money disbursed for that Service shall be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The contagious Distemper which rages so violently in several Countries Abroad, calls upon you to take into your Consideration what Provisions may be most effectual to secure this Kingdom from Infection; or if any Part of it shall be so unhappy as to be visited by that dreadful Calamity, to stop its further Progress.

It will naturally fall under your Observation, that any further Methods which shall be thought proper to prevent the iniquitous Practice of the clandestine Running of Goods, must at the same Time, greatly tend to the Preservation of the Lives and Health of his Majesty's Subjects.

Your Attention to the further extending and improving of the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, and every other Measure which may conduce to the Trade, Security and Welfare of this Kingdom, will be the most agreeable Instance of your Duty and Affection to his Majesty, who is the common Father of all his People.

You may be assured, That I shall with the highest Satisfaction, concur with you in every Thing that may promote the publick Good, and upon all Occasions contribute my best Endeavours for advancing the Happiness and Prosperity of the People of Ireland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Part your Majesty hath greatly taken for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe; and on the Success, with which God hath been already pleased to bless the Arms of your Majesty and your Allies: And to thank your Majesty for your Goodness in providing that no new Expence be laid upon this your Kingdom.

We

(Price Four-pence.)

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, concur in all Meaſures that may conduce to the Trade, Security and Welfare of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, as the moſt agreeable Inſtance of our Duty and Affection to your Majeſty: And as the ſureſt Means of ſupporting your Majeſty's Government with Honour.

We ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to provide moſt effectually for ſecuring this Kingdom from the Infection of the contagious Diſtemper now raging in ſeveral Countries Abroad: And for ſtopping that Infection, if any among us ſhould unhappily be viſited by it: And to that end, we will particularly conſider of all further Methods for preventing the iniquitous Practice of the clandeſtine Running of Goods; which, beſides the Ruin of Trade, is the readieſt Inlet to peſtilential Diſeaſes.

We cannot but return our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for ſending again to the Government of this Kingdom his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire; from whoſe experienc'd Prudence, Integrity and Honour, we have the fulleſt Aſſurance of being truly repreſented to your Majeſty as your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects: And thereby, of receiving from your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs every Thing that may promote the publick Good, and advance the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Nation.

En. Sterne, Cler'. Parliamentor'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and affectionate Addreſs, to be laid before his Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late Succeſs, and on your Deliverance from the many imminent Dangers, to which you choſe to expoſe your Sacred Perſon for the Good of your Subjects, and the Liberties of Europe.

So glorious an Example, we doubt not, muſt animate every loyal Subject to prefer the Intereſt and Honour of his Country to all other Conſiderations.

It is with the higheſt Satisfaction we aſſure your Majeſty, we repreſent a People entirely devoted to the Support of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

We ſhall, by our Unanimity and Chearfulneſs in granting Supplies, ſhew, we have a grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Care and Tenderneſs for us in the late Regulations your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make in your Military Eſtabliſhment, and alſo of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign.

We cannot in Juſtice omit this Opportunity of returning our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire our chief Governor, who has always approved himſelf ſtedfaſt and unvariable in his Loyalty, and whole Zeal and Attention to the Welfare of this Kingdom we have ſo long experienced.

Iſaac Ambroſe, & Burdett Worthington, } Cl' Parl' Dom' Com'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, preſent to your Grace our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We ſincerely congratulate, with the whole People of Ireland, on your Grace's happy Return, and eſteem it a diſtinguiſhing Mark of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, that he hath again committed the Government of this Kingdom to your Grace's long-experienced Fidelity and Wiſdom.

Your Grace's Approbation of our former Conduct, lays us under an additional Obligation to continue our juſt Regard to the Eaſe of an Adminiſtration, which hath been invariably directed to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

The great and generous Plan which his Majeſty is purſuing in Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe, even at the Hazard of his Royal Perſon, cannot fail to inſpire all his Majeſty's Loyal Subjects with the higheſt Veneration of his Princely Virtues, ſo nobly exerted for the Good of Mankind; and muſt animate them with the moſt ardent Zeal for the Security and Honour of his Government.

We ſhall be greatly wanting to ourſelves, if we do not, in the beſt Manner, improve this Opportunity to the Service of our Country; particularly, by making all ſuch Proviſions as may beſt preſerve us, with God's Bleſſing, from the dreadful Calamity of the Plague.

We ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to extend and improve the Flaxen and Hempen Manufacture, and to promote every other Meaſure that may conduce to the Trade, Security, and Welfare of this Kingdom.

We

We have the juſteſt Senſe of your Grace's watchful Care and Goodneſs, in recommending theſe important Subjects to our Conſideration; and are fully convinced, that by a zealous Purſuit of all ſuch Methods as will promote the Safety and Happineſs of this Nation, we ſhall beſt expreſs our Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, the common Father of all his People.

En. Sterne, Cler' Parliamentor'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return my Thanks to your Lordſhips for theſe kind Expreſſions of your Regard to me, which I ſhall always highly value; and as it is founded in your Opinion of my Zeal for his Majeſty's Service and the Welfare of this Kingdom, I ſhall hope by the ſame Means to preſerve the Continuance of it.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our humble Thanks to your Grace for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne, and do with the higheſt Satisfaction congratulate your Grace upon your Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

We acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in not permitting the Alterations which he has been pleaſed to make in his Armies, to occaſion any Increaſe in the Expence of the Military Eſtabliſhment of this Kingdom, and in this, as well as in many other Inſtances, are truly ſenſible of the good Effects of your Grace's faithful Repreſentation of the Circumſtances of this Kingdom to his Majeſty.

We are thankful to your Grace for the Care you have taken in providing the Arms for the Militia of this Kingdom, purſuant to the Addreſs of this Houſe, and have no Doubt, but the Money appointed for that Service hath been expended with the utmoſt Frugality.

We conſider your Grace's recommending to us ſuch Proviſions as may ſecure this Kingdom from the Infection, which rages ſo violently in ſeveral Countries abroad, as a further Inſtance of your Grace's Vigilance and Concern for the Safety and Welfare of this Nation, and are ſenſible, that the pernicious Practice of Running of Goods, at all Times ſo injurious to the fair Trader, does at this Time require our particular Attention, as it may be a Means, if not effectually prevented, of introducing that dreadful Calamity among us.

The Advancement of our Trade, more eſpecially that of the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, is a Matter of ſuch Importance to this Kingdom, that we cannot ſufficiently acknowledge your Grace's Goodneſs in recommending to us the further Improvement of it, or expreſs our Gratitude for the Encouragement which hath been given to it during your Grace's Adminiſtration.

His Majeſty's continuing your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, is to us a pleaſing Inſtance of his great Wiſdom and paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs of his People; and we aſſure your Grace, that we ſhall, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, contribute every thing in our Power, to make your Grace's Adminiſtration as eaſy to you, as it has been advantageous to us, and heartily join in every Meaſure that may conduce to his Majeſty's Honour and the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Iſaac Ambroſe, & Burdett Worthington, } Cl' Parl' Dom' Com'.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Thank you for this obliging Addreſs. Your conſtant Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the many Inſtances of your Regard to the Eaſe of my Adminiſtration, ſtrongly engage me to uſe my beſt Endeavours to promote the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Gibraltar, Auguſt 20. By the laſt Advices from the Coaſt of Africa, we are informed, that Baſhaw Hamet having marched out of Tangier to join the Emperor Mully Muſtady, Mully Abdala met them the 26th of July, defeated Part of their Army, killed the Baſhaw, and cut off his Head with his Scymeter, ſent it to Fez, and ordered it to be fix'd on the Walls of that Town: Then he came immediately to Tangier, and took Poſſeſſion of the Baſhaw's Riches, computed at Eleven Hundred Thouſand Ducats, and appointed Governors there, at Tetuan, and Larach: After which being informed that Mully Muſtady had got an Army to oppoſe his Return to Fez, he marched to meet him; but it is believed this laſt will not wait his coming up. Before Mully Abdala arrived at Tangier, four of the Baſhaw's Sons got over the Walls, and came in a ſmall Feluca to this Bay, from whence they proceeded in a French Ship to Marſeilles. This Garriſon remains in very good Health, and is well ſtored with Proviſions.

Petersbourg, Sept 17. On the 15th Inſtant a grand Feſtival was celebrated here on account of the Peace with Sweden. In the Morning the Empreſs, accompanied by his Imperial Highneſs the Great Duke, and attended by the Senate, Synod, and a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes, went in State to the the Church of Caſan, where the Foreign Miniſters were alſo preſent, her Imperial Majeſty having intimated that it would be agreeable to her. After High Maſs was ſung, the firſt Secretary of the Senate read the Definitive Treaty of Peace between Ruſſia and Sweden; the Archbiſhop of Novogorod made a Diſcourſe ſuitable to the Occaſion, and the Service being concluded with the Te Deum, three Salvos were given by the Cannon of the Fort, by the Galliès lately returned from Finland, which lay in Order for that Purpoſe on the River before the Palace, and by Seven Thouſand of the Guards, which were drawn up before the Church, and made Running Fires. In the Afternoon her Imperial Majeſty attended at Divine Service in the Chapel of the Palace. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court, and his Imperial Highneſs ſupped in Publick with the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and a great many Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes. There were two grand Illuminations facing the Palace on different Sides; the Gallies on the River were illuminated in a curious Manner, and the Houſes throughout the City. A Fire-Work ſhould have been play'd off upon the River, but rainy and windy Weather prevented it. Laſt Night there was a Maſquerade at Court, and To-morrow Night there is to be another, and the Fire-Work to be play'd off. This Day ſeveral Gallies, having five thouſand Men on Board, under the Command of the Prince of Holſtein Beck, departed from hence for Reval, to which Place Orders are ſent to Admiral Gollowin to put to Sea with a conſiderable Squadron of Ships of the Line, and to join the Swediſh Fleet at Carlſcrona.

Stockholm, Sept. 30, O. S. The Day before Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs from Carlſcrona, with Advice, that the Prince Royal of Sweden had ſafely landed there on Sunday laſt; and his Royal Highneſs is expected here about the Beginning of next Week. One of General Keith's Aids du Camp arrived alſo here Yeſterday, and brought a Letter from the ſaid General to his Swediſh Majeſty, giving a particular Account of the Number of Ruſſian Troops and Gallies under his Command. When this Officer came away, General Keith, with his Gallies, lay at Carpo Sund, ſix Miles from Abo; from whence they may be here in a Couple of Days, if the Wind proves fair.

Genoa, October 5, N. S. Prince Lobkowitz has taken the Command of the Auſtrian Army, and was to fix his Head Quarters at Bologna, that he might be the nearer at Hand, if M. de Gages ſhould make any Attempt upon the State of Tuſcany. This laſt continues ſtill at Rimini, but it is thought he has a Deſign of moving very ſoon, there having been about 4 or 500 Mules taken up in this State for his Service. The Diſturbances in Corſica ſeem likely to continue, the Malecontents having refuſed to accept the Articles, which were thought to be almoſt adjuſted with them, and inſiſting now upon better Terms, and to have them guarantied by France. A few Days ago Captain Hughes, Commander of his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Feverſham, came off this Port, after having ſafely depoſited at Boniſaecio all the Spaniſh Artillery which was carried from hence, and ſtipulated to remain there till the End of the War.

Vienna, October 5. Yeſterday Lieutenant Colonel Grotterſtorff entred this City with ſix Poſtillions, and brought Advice, that the French Commandant at Ingoldſtadt, purſuant to his Capitulation, had delivered up to General Berenclau a Gate of the Town, and given him Poſſeſſion of two Baſtions; That half the French Garriſon had marched out the 1ſt Inſtant, and the other half was to do the ſame on the 3d. The whole Garriſon, ſick and well, Soldiers and Attendants, conſiſt of about 4000. There are 170 Pieces of Artillery in the Town, Stores of Ammunition; but all the Archives, Treaſure, Pictures, &c. of the Houſe of Bavaria, which had been ſent from Munich thither, will, as we hear, be reſtored immediately. The Place is in very good Condition, ſtrong by Art and Nature. The Troops who formed the Blockade of Egra, to the Number of 7000, had already joined General Berenclau. The Croats of his Army are quitting him, but as many others are on their March to replace them. Marſhal Seckendorff's Army is ſaid to be in a miſerable Condition, and reduced to 8000 Men. Prince Charles's Marriage with the Archdutcheſs Mary-Ann, Siſter to the Queen, is ſaid to be fixed for the 15th of January. All Manner of Preparations are making for it. It is generally thought that his Highneſs will go, after the Campaign, to Bruſſells, to take Poſſeſſion of his Government of the Netherlands, and return from thence hither.

Vienna, October 9, N. S. There is Advice here from Conſtantinople, of the Depoſition of the Grand Vizir, and of his being ſucceeded by the Aga of the Janiſaries.

Hamburgh, October [illegible] The Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein, the appointed Succeſſor to the Crown of Sweden, landed on the 6th Inſtant at Carlſcrona, under the Convoy of Admiral Taube, after having been out at Sea in very tempeſtuous Weather. This News has been expected, with great Impatience, by the Ducal Family. Prince Auguſtus has now fix'd upon the 15th Inſtant for his Return to Kiel, whither he will be accompanied by the Chamberlain Korff, who from thence will continue his Journey to Stockholm, by the Route of Copenhagen: And in a Day or two Prince William of Saxe Gotha, with his Princeſs, intend to leave Hamburgh, for Graven Thonne, the Place of their Reſidence. The Loan which the Town of Altona pays to the King of Denmark, in Compenſation of their Exemption from the late Levies, is furniſhed without Intereſt, for the Term of three Years; at the Expiration of which, if the Capital is not then reimburſed, his Daniſh Majeſty conſents to pay Five per Cent. for it.

From

From the Camp at the Chartreux near Mentz, Oct. 18, N. S.

The Army halted two Days at Worms, and on Wedneſday the 16th marched again, and arrived here the next Day. The Bridge by which we are to paſs the Rhine, will be finiſhed To-morrow, and on the 20th we ſhall paſs that River, and after ſtaying one Day in our former Camp on the other Side, it is expected that we ſhall march for our Winter-Quarters in Flanders. The King paſſed the Rhine at Oppenheim the 16th, there being not the leaſt Appearance of the French following us, according to certain Accounts brought by our Huſſars, and deſigned lying that Night either at Gieſen or Marpurg, and to proceed on his Journey the 17th towards Hanover, where his Majeſty propoſed to arrive this Day. His Royal Highneſs the Duke left us Yeſterday, and will be this Evening at Caſſel. Lord Carteret ſet out for Hanover the ſame Day with his Majeſty, having croſſed the Rhine at Gernſheim, and was to lye that Night at Darmſtadt.

Paris, October 19, N. S. Letters from M. de Noailles and M. de Coigny's Armies ſay, that the Allied Army, and that under Prince Charles, are withdrawing into Winter Quarters, and that the French are preparing to do the ſame. M. de la Mina is returned again into France, having either been beat back from about Fort Dauphiné, as ſome Advices mention, or finding that it will be impracticable now the Seaſon is ſo far advanced, to penetrate with his Forces into Italy. M. de Solar, the Sardinian Ambaſſador, ſet out from Paris laſt Wedneſday, and has taken all his Family with him; ſo that the Correſpondence of this Court, and that of Turin, is ſuppoſed to be entirely broken off.

Hague, October 22, N. S. We hear from Hanover, that his Britannick Majeſty arrived there from the Army upon the Rhine, on Friday laſt in the Afternoon, in perfect Health.

Navy Office, October 13, 1743.

Whereas an anonimous Letter was ſent on the 30th of September laſt to the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, repreſenting certain Abuſes that have been committed in his Majeſty's Yards: Theſe are to give Notice, that if the Perſon who ſent the ſame will attend the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at their Office in Crutched Fryers, on Wedneſday the 19th Inſtant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, and diſcover the ſaid Abuſes, he ſhall be indemnified, his Name kept ſecret, and meet with all reaſonable Encouragement.

General Poſt-Office, London, Auguſt 18, 1743.

POST-CHAISES between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge-Wells.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the ſeveral Poſt maſters on the Road between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge Wells, are ready to furniſh Gentlemen, or others, with Poſt-Chaiſes, ſafe, eaſy, and well ſecured from the Weather, upon as ſhort Warning as for Poſt Horſes, at any Hour, either of the Day or Night. Gentlemen who have Occaſion to go Poſt on the above Roads, are deſired to apply to Mr. Baldwin, at the George Inn in the Borough of Southwark.

A Poſt-Chaiſe may be had at any of the Stages on the Dover and Tunbridge-Wells Roads, to go Part, or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for thoſe who do not chuſe to travel in the Night.

N. B. All Gentlemen that travel in Poſt-Chaiſes of their own upon the Roads where Poſt-Chaiſes are already ſet up, by the Authority of this Office, may be ſupplied with Horſes, at the ſeveral Stages on thoſe Roads, at the Rate of Nine Pence per Mile.

By Command of the Poſtmaſter General.
